Blair Tindall
Speaker, Author, and Musical Explorer

Find where you shine & discover your genius.™

Once an accomplished classical musician, Blair Tindall diligently worked for two decades to leap out of an oppressive, boxed-in career and into an energizing, rewarding career that fully utilizes her interests, talents, and aptitudes: her Flair For Genius. Today, Blair is a professional writer, public speaker, television personality, and creative consultant.

Exploring your gifts – the places where you shine – is key to discovering your unique genius.

During her Flair For Genius presentations, Blair presents inspiring case studies and her APT Approach™: Affinity, Plan, and Talent. This proven set of hands-on exercises helps audience members identify their interests, talents, and aptitudes – their unique genius.

Blair’s Flair for Genius process isn’t a matter of simply cataloging individual skills. She helps adult learners and career-changers explore how their interests, talents, and aptitudes add up – resonating as a package that is uniquely theirs.

Blair invested two decades and thousands of dollars to identify hardworking tools and effective exercises. She has distilled the most effective tests and powerful role-playing exercises into her APT Approach to achieve tangible results. Audiences walk away with a game plan and concrete steps to identify the career that’s right for them.

An added bonus, Blair’s extraordinary life story motivates presentation attendees to pursue energizing, rewarding careers that tap into their Flair For Genius.

Benefits for adult learners and career-changers:

Discover your true path, identifying the career that will bring wealth, happiness, and success.

Explore unfamiliar fields to consider your ideal job or retirement.

Find the genius – the innate talent – that separates you from everyone else and exploit that professionally.

About Blair Tindall

Helping others discover their Flair For Genius

Recognized as a talented musician at age 5, Blair Tindall's entire life was boxed in to achieve one goal: play music. Lost in a lifetime of practice and goals set for her as a child, she never explored her other gifts, talents, and aptitudes.

Throughout her performing career, a frustration and sense of desperation grew. Like many people stuck in the wrong job, she wanted to live her life differently but didn't know how. She felt trapped in someone else's dream.

By uncovering hidden aptitudes, Blair found her unique genius.

For nearly two decades, Blair invested in myriad aptitude tests and career counseling. She identified the hardworking exercises that offer clear results – shining a spotlight on your unique gifts, talents, and aptitudes.

Blair discovered that writing and speaking were hidden aptitudes, and a source of great joy. She received a full scholarship to Stanford University's School of Journalism at age 40. Immediately successful, her journalism career focused on business, environmental issues, and performing arts for major newspapers and magazines. In 2005, she published her first book, Mozart in the Jungle: Sex, Drugs and Classical Music, which led to speaking engagements around the world.

Today, Blair is a professional writer, public speaker, television personality, musical explorer, and creative consultant.

In her presentations and workshops, Blair helps participants identify skills, talents, and aptitudes – their unique genius – to tap into passions and create an extraordinary level of job-satisfaction and productivity.
